The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 23, to Tuesday September 26, 1749.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 25.

HERE has been ſome great and conſiderable Changes; the firſt was in the Interior of the Seraglio. The Jazigi Effendi, or Secretary to the Kizlar Aga, or Chief of the Black Eunuchs, is made Baſh Muhas Zebegi Haremi, or Chief of the Revenues of Mecca and Medina, and alſo of the Interior of the Seraglio. The Mufty Ezade Effendi is depoſed, and baniſhed to a Town in Aſia, with Orders to repair to Mecca at the proper Seaſon: And his Brother, who was Kadaliſkier, or chief Judge of Natolia, is alſo ordered into Baniſhment to Synope on the Black Sea; but at the Requeſt of his Creditors is yet here at his own Houſe on the Canal. The Grand Seignor has made the Perſon, who was laſt Year Kadaliskier of Romania, Mufty. The Teſterdar or Treaſurer has alſo been depoſed, and one in the ſame Office has ſucceeded him, and he is baniſhed to Serres near Salonica. The Rebellion, ſaid ſome Time ago to be begun by Solyman Paſcha of Buſſora, is confirmed; he actually attacks the Town of Babylon, and his Army increaſes: Meaſures are taking to ſave that Province, and deſtroy him: Four of the neighbouring Paſcha's have Orders to march their Troops to relieve Mehemet Paſcha in Babylon. Some think that theſe Troops cannot arrive in Time, but that Solyman may be Maſter of the Town before he can be attacked: Others ſay that he is already in it: The Troops ſent are ſaid to be commanded by the Paſcha of Sivas. There is certain Advice that the Schach of Perſia is ſending a Miniſter here to conſolidate the Treaty made with Schach Nadir; and we are aſſured that the Porte has named a Paſcha of Two Tails to go as the Grand Seignor's Miniſter in Perſia. By the Caravans arrived at Aleppo and Smyrna, there is Advice, that the Diſorders of that Kingdom are ſettled; and it is ſaid here, that Shawrooke Schach is in quiet Poſſeſſion of the Throne, having taken Ibrahim Mirza Priſoner, and cauſed him to be blinded. A great Famine reigns throughout the Kingdom of Perſia.

Moſcow, Auguſt 28. The Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, had Yeſterday his Audience of Leave of her Imperial Majeſty, and his Excellency propoſes to ſet out on his Return to England about the Middle of next Month. Baron Hopken, Envoy from Sweden, died here of a Conſumption on Saturday laſt.

Naples, Sept. 9. The King has made a Preſent of 6000 Ducats to the Univerſity of this City. His Majeſty being informed that the contagious Diſtemper ſtill continues to rage very much on the African Coaſt, and being fearful leaſt ſome of the Veſſels of that Coaſt ſhould bring it to the Ports of Tuſcany, has ſent Orders to the Magiſtrates of Health to give publick Notice, that no Ship or Veſſel whatſoever ſhall be permitted to unload here, either from Leghorn, or any other of the Ports of Tuſcany, without performing their former Quarantain. The Prince de Tarente, their Majeſties Second Son, is juſt ſeized with the Small Pox.

Stockholm, Sept. 19. Advices from Wennebourg ſay, that the Prince Succeſſor arrived there on the 8th Inſtant, and was buſy in reviewing their Troops and in examining their Magazines; but that it was expected he would ſet out on the 11th for Boras.

Vienna, Sept. 20, N. S. The Baron de Becker, the Elector of Palatine's Miniſter, having finiſhed the Buſineſs with which he was charged at this Court, propoſes ſoon to ſet out on his Return to Manheim. On the 18th Count Durrazzo, Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Genoa, had his firſt publick Audience of their Imperial Majeſties at Schonbrun, and delivered his Credential Letters. Count Bentinck, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the States General of the United Provinces arrived here Yeſterday, and has has notified his Arrival to the Foreign Miniſters.

Dreſden, Sept. 22, N. S. The Prince Royal and the Princeſs his Spouſe are ſet out on their Journey to Prague.

Turin, Sept. 24, N. S. Lady Rochford was preſented laſt Sunday to his Sardinian Majeſty at the Venerie, and was received with great Marks of Diſtinction. His Majeſty is reviewing there ſome of his Regiments. Laſt Week he reviewed the Duke of Savoy's Regiment of Dragoons, and the Piedmonteſe Royal Regiment of Dragoons, which is to be given to the Duke of Chablais. Yeſterday being the King of Spain's Birth-day, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador gave a grand Entertainment, at which were preſent all the Miniſters of State, and foreign Miniſters, except the Pope's Nuntio.

Berlin, Sept. 27, N. S. On Tueſday laſt the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, Prince Frederick Eugene de Wurtenberg Stuttgard, and Prince Lobkowitz, together with ſeveral Officers of State, General Officers, and Foreign Miniſters, ſet out for Charlottenbourg, where his Majeſty gave them a moſt elegant Entertainment at two Tables in the grand Apartment of the Palace, and in the Evening his Majeſty returned to Potzdam.

Cologne, Sept. 27, N. S. Count Konigſegg, their Imperial Majeſties Miniſter to this Court, is arrived here. We have juſt received Advice from Steinfort, that the Princeſs of Naſſau Siegen, Spouſe of Count Bentheim-Steinfort, was happily delivered there of a Daughter, which had been named Anne-Polixene-Sidonie-Charlotte.

Copenhagen, Sept. 27, N. S. The Duke of Saxe Hildbourgſhauſen is arrived at Friderickſbourg, and great Preparations are making for his Marriage with the Princeſs Louiſa, which is to be celebrated next Week at Hirſcholm, the Palace of the Queen Dowager. What Stay the Duke propoſes to make after his Marriage is not known, but the Prince his Brother, who has accompanied him in his Journey, is, it is ſaid, to remain here, and to enter into the Daniſh Service. As the Number of Inhabitants here viſibly increaſe, his Daniſh Majeſty has been pleaſed to give up the Garden and Place of Amalienbourg, ſituated within the Walls on the Eaſt Side of the Town near the Sea, to be built upon for their Uſe. Favourable Conditions to invite Builders are already publiſhed, and the Ground is to be prepared forthwith. There is Room for about one Hundred very convenient Houſes, and the Whole, when finiſhed according to the Plan laid down, will be a conſiderable Addition and Ornament to the City.

Bruſſels, Sept. 29, N. S. Prince Charles of Lorrain is arrived at Ath, where he has been received with great Affection; at his Return it is expected he will ſet out for Mons, and from thence go and viſit the Fortifications of Charleroy and Namur.

Hambourg, Sept. 30, N. S. The Marquis of Grimaldi, appointed Ambaſſador from Spain to the Court of Sweden, arrived here laſt Night with a numerous Retinue.

His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty went Yeſterday Morning to Choiſy, and from thence goes on Thurſday to Fontainbleau, where the Infanta ſtays till Saturday, when ſhe is to proceed on her Journey to Italy to the Infant Don Philip. Prince Frederick of Heſſe arrived here laſt Thurſday, and had his Audiences of the King, Queen, and Royal Family Yeſterday Morning.

Hague, October 3, N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant, his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, having again aſſiſted at an Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes, ſet out in the Evening on his Return to Loo. His Serene Highneſs has conferred the Degree of Colonel on Lieutenant Colonel d'Aubonne, and has appointed him to be one of his Aids de Camp. Their High Mightineſſes have appointed M. de Haren to reſide at the Court of Bruſſels, in the room of M. Kinſchot, who is going to reſide at Liege as Miniſter from this State; and 'tis ſaid that Count Wartenſleben will be appointed the Republick's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Sweden. M. d'Ammon, the Pruſſian Miniſter, having taken his Leave of this Court by a Memorial, their High Mightineſſes have ordered him the uſual Preſent of a Gold Chain and Medal valued at 1300 Florins, together with one of 300 Florins for his Secretary.

Utrecht, October 3, N. S. Yeſterday Morning his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, who left the Hague the Night before, paſſed by this City on his Return to Loo.
